In altre parole, la Borsa di New York. It has kind of mad caper moments at times with adventure, fantasy and a soft take on steampunk. It would be valuable even to go through any one romance, identifying all the potential parallels with the work of Cervantes; with a series of such analyses one would then be in a position to begin a serious study of the chivalric sources of the Quijote. Avez-vous jamais contenu la peur. But if all your argument is that it's wrong to do a gay to straight character but not the inverse, that is not constructive criticism and you should just keep it to yourself or at least present it in a respectful non confrontational way, while respecting the authors creative "rights", for lack of a better word.
