Unfortunately, the moralization of our lives has insidiously attached itself to genuine psychological needs-some basic to our condition, others cultivated by the conditions of life under morality-so its corrosive effects cannot simply be removed without further psychological damage. I do remember that there's a bar Works of Mrs. Madeline Leslie scene at one point. Multiple ones, actually. For instance, Malka Halgamuge at the University of Melbourne bathed germinating soybeans in mobile phone or base station radiation. Reference to the Wizard of Oz.
